James,

I was wondering if you had a maximum offer/budget you would like me to keep on file incase anything changes?

We have been able to acquire domains for great prices with this method, and I highly recommend it.

Please give me a call if you have any questions or to submit your offer to keep on record: 1-800-818-1828.

Hi James,

What about paying for this domain over time?

A small down payment, then monthly payments. I have worked with some companies to make owning a domain a very palatable monthly marketing expense rather than a large sum upfront.

What do you think?

PS: We can get creative on a payment schedule or try and make something work. We should brainstorm together...

Hi James,

Time definitely flies. It has already been a month since you contacted me about myschool.com.

I think it is time we had a serious discussion about launching your project, and using the power of this domain to do it.

I have a few ideas on how to make this possible.
